ITINERARY IN DETAIL

Day 1: Arrive at the hotel nearby Chitwan National Park

Upon arrival at Chitwan, our representative will introduce you to your hotel room, and after being fresh, you will have lunch and be briefed about the Chitwan jungle safari program. Late afternoon, you will go for an elephant-back safari for about two hours, an activity in which you will ride on an elephant to explore the jungle and wildlife. You will see various animals like the one-horned rhinoceros, several types of deer, monkeys, wild boar, bison, sloth bear, leopard, and, if lucky, the Royal Bengal tiger. In the evening, you will take a walk around Tharu Village. You can see the lifestyle and things they do. Besides that, the guide will also explain how they are dependent upon forests and rivers for life and their tattoo and Heena culture. You can see some of the Tharu men and women making baskets and fishnets from locally available resources. After you return to the hotel, you will be served some drinks, and the Tharu dance starts on the hotel premises. It is an hour of the program with different dances of the Tharu community. At last, the dancers will invite you to dance and move your body for a while before dinner for a good appetite!

Day 2: Chitwan jungle safari Program ends- depart

After tea/coffee, you will set off for bird watching early in the morning. Then you will get back to the resort for an excellent breakfast. After breakfast, your one night/2 days Chitwan National Park Jungle Safari program ends, and you will start your return journey towards your next destination.

Note: The Jungle Safari activities are adjusted to the season and weather conditions. Naturally, it may not always be possible to follow this schedule as it is, and the circumstances may force us to alter the program at short notice. On safari in the jungle, you will be accompanied by expert naturalists who will advise on safety procedures, and we request you to respect their judgment at all times. If you wish to stroll in the forest alone, a guide will have to accompany you for your safety.*
