Daman Hiking - 6 Days

Hiking in Daman or Daman hiking is the short hike towards the 100 km southwest of Kathmandu at an altitude of 2320 m, providing panoramic views of Himalayan ranges, including Mt. Everest Mt. Annapurna, Manaslu, Ganesh Himal, Langtang, Dorjelakpa, Gaurishankar, and Cho yu.

Daman hiking is considered the ideal site for hiking in Nepal as it is near Kathmandu city, just around a two to three hours drive. We head towards Daman after sightseeing worldwide heritage sites like Kathmandu Durbar square, Soyambhunath stupa, Baudhanath Stupa, and Pashupati temple in Kathmandu valley. Explore the Daman and relax in one of the hotels that provide international standard quality services. Many outsiders visit Daman to experience snowfall during winter, along with spectacular views of snow-capped mountains.

Short hiking in Nepal can be best experienced in Daman with Icicles Adventure Treks and view the best of the Himalayas in Nepal.
