Dhulikhel Belthali Village Hiking - 7 Days

Dhulikhel Belthali Village Hiking in Nepal is getting popular these days specifically the short hiking sites near Kathmandu valley and Dhulikhel Balthali Village hiking is one of them. Dhulikhel is considered as one of the best viewpoints of the best panoramic snow-capped mountain views and is also the nirvana for nature lovers. We first go for the sightseeing of culturally rich world heritage sites of Kathmandu valley and head towards Dhulikhel hiking next day.

Dhulikhel Belthali Village Hiking initiates after driving 30km southeast from Kathmandu at an altitude of 1550m above sea level. Dhulikhel offers Himalayan ranges stretching from Mt. Annapurna in the far west to Mt. Karolung in the Far East. More than twenty Himalayan peaks including Mt. Annapurna, Mt. Ganesh himal, Mt. Langtang, Mt. Phuribichyachu, Mt. Gaurishankar, Mt. Lhotse are seen from Dhulikhel viewpoint. It is an ancient town which exhibits the centuries old temples, shrines, monasteries and traditionally crafted windows and houses. Hiking towards Namo Buddha through balthali village is equally mesmerizing which is the scared place for Buddhists. Dhulikhel also connects with Tibetan border through tatopani which is famous for natural hotspring spas, ideal place for relaxing and reenergizing yourself. We then hike back to another culturally rich Panauti village mostly inhabited by Newars and drive back to Kathmandu.

Experience the best views of Himalayan ranges in the ancient town of Dhulikhel through Icicles Adventure Treks and get the best of hiking in Nepal.
