

Jiri to Everest Base Camp Trek - 24 Days

"Hitchhike into the grandiose Everest region & follow the classic trek route of Jiri to Everest Base Camp Trek with us!"

Leave the customary hustles of your daily lifestyle behind and give yourself the green light to experience the adventure of a lifetime by going on our 24 days Jiri to Everest Base Camp Trek.

This is a classic Himalayan trek that starts from the small eastern town of Jiri. Our trek fully captures the authentic essence of traveling inside an extrinsic trekking region of Nepal. Moreover, it gives you a one-of-a-kind insight into the tribal livelihoods of the legendary Sherpa people while you crisscross over the verdurous hills and valleys. So, join this trek and create some unforgettable trekking memories in Nepal this year.

On our Everest Base Camp Trek via Jiri, you visit the unofficial Sherpa capital of Namche Bazaar and the famous Tengboche Monastery, the largest monastery of the Khumbu region. Likewise, as you set on a trailblazing course to EBC (5,380m/17,600ft), you get to witness the panoramic sight of the Himalayan mountains from the top of Kala Patthar (5,545m/18,192ft), which includes Mt. Everest (8,848m/29,029ft)- the highest mountain in the world.

Moreover, you can also see Mt. Ama Dablam (6,812m/22,349ft), Mt. Nuptse (7,861m/25,791ft), Mt. Lhotse (8,516m/27,940ft), Mt. Cho Oyu (8,188m/26,864ft) and even Mt. Makalu (8,485m/27,838ft). You will also be able to encounter incredible wildlife diversity hidden within the sumptuous Everest region. Lastly, trekkers can learn a great deal about the local culture & tradition, which will fascinate you.

HOW DIFFICULT IS JIRI TO EVEREST BASE CAMP TREK?

Today is a great day on your Everest base cam trek as your desire of being at Everest Base camp is going to be filled today. Actively wake up little early as we have a long and grueling day ahead of us with a minimum of eight hours net walking time. It starts with a three hour climb to Lobuche Pass. Then after three-and-a-half-hour push to Everest base camp which is an exhausting climb up. We walk past lateral moraine of the Khumbu Glacier which is a tough path and when you stand still and quiet you can occasionally hear cracking or scraping sound of the glacier movement. Everest does not seem to get any nearer and by now we have five of the world's highest mountains in such a small area. We see crest of north ridge of Everest along with Mt. Pumori, Mt. Mahalangur, Mt. Lingtern, Mt. Khumbutse, Mt. Nuptse, etc. The trail ascends the side of the glacier for a couple of hours before we finally drop onto the glacial moraine itself. Not far to go now, the trail winds up and down through fascinating ice seracs to Everest Base Camp. We do not get views of Mt Everest but can see the notorious Everest Ice Fall that flows from the Western Cwm. The Ice Fall is regarded as technically the hardest and most dangerous section of the mountain. If its spring we will see colorful tents that arises charisma in the gray surroundings. By now we have met the ultimate objective of our trip. Spend some time taking photos in the natural amphitheater. Trek back to Gorekshep takes about another three hours. Stay overnight at Gorekshep. Accommodation: Local lodge, Included Meal: B, L, D.
