Kakani Hiking - 5 Days

Kakani hiking tour is a short and easy hiking tour to the Kakani hill station at an altitude above 2000 meters northwest of Kathmandu. The spectacular views of the Annapurna Himalayan range, Dhaulagiri Himalayan range, including Ganesh Himal, can be experienced through this Kakani hill.

We begin our Kakani hike after exploring the culturally rich Kathmandu city and sightseeing at world heritage sites like Soyambhunath Temple, Boudhanath Stupa, Pashupatinath temple Kathmandu durbar square. It takes only one and half hours from Kathmandu to reach our destination Kakani. Hiking in Kakani not only offers the view of the magnificent Himalayan range, but it is also the blend of experiencing the nature hike through Rhododendron forests that blossom during the spring season. Kakani is also known for local strawberry farming that is gaining popularity in nearby markets. We conclude our short and sweet Kakani hiking tour by returning to Kathmandu the next day.

Experience hiking in Kakani through Icicles Adventures Treks and make your holiday in Nepal a memorable one.
