

Nar Phu Valley Trek - 19 Days

Nar Phu Valley trek is a remote and nontouristy area trekking in Nepal that takes you to the beautiful but hidden Nar and Phu Villages forking away from the Annapurna circuit. The area only opened to tourists in 2003, so it remains new and unspoiled, and trekking through Nar Phu valley has a very different charm as very few westerners have trekked in the area.

The Nar Phu valleys combine views of high peaks and passes, glaciers, remote villages, narrow canyons, lovely forests, amazing rock formations, yaks, gompas, and two remote Tibetan villages (Nar & Phu). After exploring Nar and Phu village, we trek back to the Annapurna trail to continue our trek through adventurous Thorung La pass, the holy site of Muktinath, and finally to Jomsom to fly to Pokhara.

The Nar Phu valley trek is initiated after the trek preparation and guided sightseeing around the Kathmandu valley. From Kathmandu, we will take a drive towards Besisahar, followed by Syange, which is the starting point of our trek. Ascending gradually towards Phu and Nar village comprises the spectacular views of snow-capped mountains and the visit to ancient monasteries and chance of exploring Tibetan Buddhism culture and tradition. Finally, Kangla pass at an altitude of 5322 meters, lets us spectacle the panoramic views of mountains.

Further, we will pass through pine forests and Gurung settlements in the Manang valley, followed by experiencing the natural vegetation and yak herds at Yak Kharka. Visiting the famous pilgrimage site Muktinath temple gives us a sense of peace and tranquility. It carries the religious importance of Hinduism and Buddhism. Then we will trek further towards Kagbeni along the Kali Gandaki River to arrive at Jomsom, from where we will board a flight towards Pokhara.

As in the other trekking in Nepal, we trek through valleys, forests, high passes, monasteries, and temples, but special about Nar Phu Valley Trek trekking through a totally secluded settlement of Nar and Phu are untouched from the modern civilization. It feels like we are back into time when we watch the daily chores of the villagers of Nar and Phu. So with the memories full of adventure and accomplishment, the Nar Phu valley trek is concluded after arriving at Kathmandu via scenic 6 hours of drive.

Nar Phu valley, an off-beaten path trek in Nepal, requires a good physical fitness level and passion for trekking and walking. Join Nar Phu valley trek with Icicles adventure for the ultimate experience of trekking in remote areas of Nepal.
