Shangri la Tour Bhutan - 10 Days

Bhutan tour is also popularly known as the Shangri La Tour that holds the incredibly beautiful landscapes and displays the ancient architectural thankas, paintings, Dzongs and monasteries that reflects centuries old culture, tradition and history of Bhutan. Sightseeing in Thimpu,the capital of the Dragon's Kingdom is equally aesthetic to the outsiders.

We start our 10 days Last Shangri la tour after arriving at the Paro airport and sightseeing at the Ta Zong, the national museum and ancient watch tower which shows the Thanka paintings, textiles, weapons and artifacts. Also the stunning view of holy mountain, Mt. Chhomolari (also known as Mountain of goddesses) at an altitude of 24000 feet. Further we head towards to visit the Taktshang monastery (also known as Tiger's Nest) situated at the unique vertical granite cliff above the valley floor. Then we will drive in the beautiful valleys of Thimpu and visit the thanka painting schools and traditional folk school along with Tashi chho Dzong and the Handicraft emporium. After visiting around the scenic landmarks around the Thimpu we will drive back to Paro airport and fly back towards Kathmandu.
